

These are the Church Announcements For the Weekend of February 05, 2012

IN PARISH NEWS

Please check out this Sunday's bulletin and inserts for additional parish news and information. In this Sunday's edition we are introducing and phasing in new sections, daily readings with a devotional reflection for each day, a section welcoming new parishioners, ministry updates from RCIA, CCD and our Youth group and parish information as it occurs.

SUPER BOWL PARTY

Holy Cross Catholic Church is sponsoring a Super Bowl Party in Weber Hall---today at 4:30pm. Wear your favorite jersey, team colors or casual wear and come have a good time together here with one another. We will be serving light refreshments—and lots of fellowship. The football game will be shown on the brand new flat screen television in Weber Hall. Everyone is welcome!

GUESTS AND VISITORS

At this time if you are a guest or visitor here at Holy Cross or a long time member returning home “....please stand and remain standing....” so that we can warmly welcome and greet you this morning!

(Wait until the congregation applauds).

On behalf of Fr. Basil and our Holy Cross parish family, we welcome you to our church today!

Your presence is a blessing to us!

We invite you to join us after Mass for coffee and fellowship!

Please come again and know that you are welcomed!

Let us give them another round of applause!
