ADVENT SEASON

Advent

From the Latin term used in a secular context to denote the coming or arrival of the emperor, this four-week liturgical season inaugurates the entire liturgical year. The General Norms for the Liturgical Year and Calendar, issued by the Holy See in March 1969 as a result of the liturgical reform of the Second Vatican Council, offers this description of the season: "Advent has a twofold character: as a season to prepare us for Christmas when Christ's first coming to us is remembered; as a season when that remembrance directs the mind and heart to await Christ's Second Coming at the end of time. Advent is thus a period for devout and joyful expectation."
